

MINUTES
GIG HARBOR ARTS COMMISSION MEETING
Wednesday, September 8, 2021 10:00 a.m.
Remote Meeting

CALL TO ORDER / ROLL CALL: Chair Charlee Glock-Jackson called the meeting to order. Commissioners Lynn Stevenson, Dan Bozich, Samantha Kelly, Linda Sutherland and Jennifer Beard were present. Robin Avni was excused.

Staff present included Interim City Clerk Josh Stecker, Mayor Kit Kuhn and Interim City Administrator Tony Piasecki.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: The minutes of the meeting of August 11 were unanimously approved.

DISCUSSION ITEMS

1. Historic Markers Update – Mayor Kuhn updated the Commission on the status of historic markers and pylon installations at Austin Park. The Commission discussed the orientation and thickness of the stainless steel pylon signage.
2. 2022 Budget – The Commission reviewed the proposed 2022 Budget and recommended revisions to clarify future capital project goals. Funding for workshop and education opportunities were combined into a single objective for 2022.
3. Harbor Arbor Art Project – The Commission decided to seek artists to carve the two snags identified in Grandview Forest. Lynn Stevenson will work staff to develop a call for artists with a deadline before the next Arts Commission meeting.

COMMISSIONER COMMENTS: Charlee Glock-Jackson announced that Arts Commissioners were invited to be jurors at the Peninsula Art League Art Show. She also announced the launch of the Gig Harbor Now online newspaper. Lynn Stevenson and Charlee Glock-Jackson will work on revised signage for the Ulsh Totem Pole located at the Civic Center.

ADJOURN: The meeting adjourned at 12:09 p.m.

_____
Joshua Stecker
Interim City Clerk